DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 8-9 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for other bases, does not reasonably provide enablement for use of sodium or potassium phosphate. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make the invention commensurate in scope with these claims.

Given that the salt is a phosphate in the first place, it is not seen how these bases will get rid of the phosphate.

Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

- 1. Claim 8 fails to define Formula I. Likewise claim 4.
- 2. Did claim 8 intended “triethylamine”?
- 3. Claim 1, as written, actually requires that the compound be in the form of a solvate or hydrate, presumably not applicants’ intent. Suggested is “and” before “the hydrates”.

Specification

One abstract is objected to as too vague. Formula I is needed for the abstract to make sense. The other abstract is fine, as it has the formula. Applicants must indicate which abstract is to be used, because applicants have submitted two different ones on the same day.
